

Brigham and Women's Hospital High Resolution Anoscopy (HRA) Course*Harvard Medical School, Boston MA*September 24, 2022Course Description

This is a one-day intensive course designed for colorectal surgery fellows who wish to gain practical experience in the performance of high resolution anoscopy. The course will consist of lectures followed by hands-on sessions, during which time participants will perform the techniques involved in high resolution anoscopy (magnified visualization, photo and video documentation, biopsies, ablation).

Saturday, Sept 24, 2022

8:00-8:20 – Breakfast

8:20-8:30 - Welcome

8:30-8:50 – Basics of HPV
(epidemiology, pathology, rationale for HRA)

8:50-9:10 – Principles of Treatment (topical and ablative procedures, treatment algorithm)

9:10-9:40 – Lesion identification (“show and tell”) – LSIL and HSIL

9:40-10:00 – How to Set Up an HRA Program

10:00-10:15 – BREAK

10:15-11:15 - Hands-on lab

11:15-12:30 – Lunch

12:30-1:30 – Hands-on lab

1:30-2:30 – Skills Assessment

2:30-3:00 – Q+A

The course is limited to 25 participants. To reserve a spot, please contact Jim Yoo (jyoo@bwh.harvard.edu)